

Rev. George F. Regas, the Progressive Religious Partnership, All Saints Church, Pasadena & Interfaith Communities United for Justice and Peace invite you to:

An Evening of Moral Reflection:

COME TOGETHER, VIEW, AND CRITIQUE
PRESIDENT GEORGE W. BUSH'S STATE OF THE UNION MESSAGE

How would YOU describe the State of the Union in 2003?

TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 2003

5:30 pm

We will gather one half-hour before the speech is scheduled to be aired.
The broadcast is usually at 6:00 pm on the West Coast, but Washington has not yet confirmed the time. Check your local TV listings.

ALL SAINTS CHURCH
132 N. EUCLID, PASADENA

A diverse panel will offer perspectives:

Cynthia Anderson-Barker – ICUJP and National Lawyers' Guild

Dr. Tamara Eskenazi – professor at Hebrew Union College

Mike Farrell – chair, Death Penalty Focus and Human Rights Watch

Dr. Nazir Khaja – Islamic Information Center, Los Angeles

Rev. Tim McDonald – First Iconium Baptist Church, Atlanta

There will be time to engage in dialogue and consider appropriate responses.

Refreshments will be served. Seating is limited, please RSVP to 626-683-9400

"The war against terrorism will not, cannot be won; unless the war against poverty, against disease, against ignorance is won." – BISHOP DESMOND TUTU

The Progressive Religious Partnership (PRP) is a nationwide interfaith coalition seeking to raise a prophetic voice on issues of racial, economic, sexual, and gender justice, and also be an alternative voice on war and peace. See: <http://www.progressivereligiouspartnership.org>

All Saints Church is a Peace Church with a long history of social justice ministries

See:

http://www.allsaints-pas.org/all\_saints\_church.htm

Interfaith Communities United for Justice and Peace (ICUJP) is a Los Angeles-based interfaith organization working to promote awareness that religious communities must stop blessing war and violence.

See: <http://www.icujp.org>

For more information please call the Progressive Religious Partnership: (626) 683-9400