ICUJP Educational Forum: Presidential Debate 2004

Wednesday, October 13, 2004
5:30-9:30 p.m.

Omar Ibn Al Khattab Foundation
Abu Dawood Hall, lower level
1025 Exposition Blvd.
Los Angeles 90007

The misuse of religious language for anti-democratic purposes is contrary to the ethical standard that lies at the heart of all faith traditions. ICUJP recognizes the critical importance of the separation between church and state, but also the consequential impact of spiritual values on political views, and the crucial need for interfaith dialogue and understanding.

We invite you to learn more. Please join us for a public viewing of the third Presidential debate, followed by an interfaith analysis, and an audience question and answer session.

Special Guests will include:

Jim Brenneman

Pasadena Mennonite Church

Eisha Mason

Center For The Advancement of Nonviolence

Stephen Rohde

Progressive Jewish Alliance

Omar Zaki

Council on American Islamic Relations

INTERFAITH COMMUNITIES UNITED FOR JUSTICE AND PEACE (ICUJP)
