

Medical Aid for the War-Injured Children of Iraq

Wednesday
December 8, 2004

7:30 pm

Venice United Methodist Church
1020 Victoria Ave., Venice

Sponsored by Nomorevictims.org, Veterans for Peace,
Iraq Veterans Against the War, Guerrero Azteca Project & Code Pink

Featured Speakers

Medea Benjamin
Global Exchange/Code Pink

In 2002 Cole Miller, founding director of NoMoreVictims.org, made a poster using Vietnam Veteran Alan Pogue's powerful photograph of Asra'a Mizyad, an Iraqi child who was severely injured in a US missile attack near Basra in 1999.

Fernando Suarez del Solar Military Families Speak Out

Miller and Pogue made an unsuccessful attempt to get Asra'a out before the war. In

Tim Goodrich
Iraq Veterans Against the War

August of this year, they returned to the Middle East and brought Asra'a and her father, Abdul-Ameir Salman, to Houston, where she received rehabilitative treatment and a prosthetic arm.

Cole Miller
NoMoreVictims.org

Soon they will return to their home in Abu Floos, in southern Iraq, where Asra'a's mother and four brothers and sisters await their arrival. Please join us in greeting Asra'a and her father while they are in Los Angeles. Proceeds from the event will help fund their return, provide a nest-egg to help Asra'a and her family, and fund future medical relief initiatives to help war-injured children from Iraq.

Music by Andy Manoff ~

Event hosted by Don White

$10.00 suggested donation (no one turned away)

No More Victims.org

La Paz

NoMoreVictims.org was founded in 2002, to express opposition to the war in Iraq and US militarism around the globe

For More Information, call (323) 644-2889 or (310) 838-8131